Rest in Peace

The Ninety-Nines have lost two outstanding members recently.

Anne Bridge Baddour was a member of the Eastern New England Chapter for many years. She donated a generous scholarship each year in memory of her father, William Bridge. Anne was also a member of several other aviation organizations. Here is a link to the tribute published by the Aero Club of New England:

Cecile Schwebel Hatfield was a prominent member of The Ninety-Nines and served as The Ninety-Nines' legal counsel for decades. She was a trailblazer in both aviation and law. Her flying was so impressive that Vice President Hubert Humphrey once offered her a job as his personal pilot. Robin Hatfield, President of the Ninety-Nines, wrote this tribute:
