

99s: Women Pilots of Eastern New England

Katahdin Wings Air-marking Project

Saturday, May 19

Eastern Slopes Regional Airport, Fryeburg, ME (KIZG)

As we all know by now, Eastern Slopes Regional Airport in Fryeburg, Maine, will be the terminus of this year's Air Race Classic in June. In preparation for that momentous event, Katahdin Wings is holding an air-marking at the airport in Fryeburg on Saturday, May 19 (rain date Sunday, May 20).

Katahdin Wings is a tiny but enthusiastic Chapter. KW members, as well as any volunteers who show up, will paint a compass rose with the 99s symbol in the middle, which will greet all who fly into KIZG. If you have ever done an air-marking, you know this is a large undertaking. All volunteers are welcome! 99s members, of course, but any husbands, boyfriends, or girlfriends who would like to participate are welcome! You don't need to be there all day - come for a couple of hours if that is all the time you can commit.

RSVP to Lori Plourd, piperpilot2003@yahoo.com, (207) 253-9355, if you are able to participate.

Thank you from the Katahdin Wings Chapter.
