City!

"The 99s Museum of Women Pilots in Oklahoma City allows visitors to walk through the history of women in aviation from the earliest flights to the present day. Explore one of the largest collections of artifacts and information solely dedicated to women pilots. Located on the second floor of the International Headquarters building of the Ninety-Nines at the Will Rogers World Airport, this 5,000 square foot museum features permanent and temporary exhibits on famous women pilots. The museum is operated by The Ninety-Nines Inc, an international organization of women pilots established in 1929 with Amelia Earhart as the first president." Cuteness Overload!

Heather Tory's daughter's first airplane ride.

"On July 4 weekend, my husband and I took our 16 month old (future 99er!) daughter Madeleine on her first plane ride in our Cessna 172, from KHFD to KWVL (avoiding much traffic in the process!). She had a great time and loved the plane ride - happy as a clam in the back, and then promptly fell asleep."

Flying Treasure Hunt - Katahdin Wings Event

Katahdin Wings is holding their annual Flying Treasure Hunt from September 19 through October 11. This is a great opportunity to practice your clue-solving skills, cross-country planning, and sectional chart knowledge - all while having fun and supporting Maine Ace Academy.

Solve the clues, take a picture of each location from your plane, and submit your photos. There will be great prizes for the most correct answers.

To register or for more information, contact Brenda Thibodeau at brenda@greenthumbfarms.com.
