Call For Volunteers May 15 at KLCI

There will be an Airport OpenHouse at Laconia, NH (KLCI) on Saturday, May 15 from 10am to 2pm. The event is called Wings Water Wheels and is sponsored by WinnAero, a non-profit organization dedicated to STEM education through aviation in central New Hampshire. There will be a place for vendors & organizations to have an information table, and I have reserved a spot for the 99s for the day. As president of WinnAero, I will be spending the day greeting and making connections among the participants, so I am unable to "man" the 99s table. Please consider coming to the event to represent the 99s to the families, aviators, and youth who will be attending. Contact Karen Mitchell by phone or text at (603) 707-0201 or email karen.mitchell@winnaero.org if you're able to volunteer at KLCI on 5/15/21.
