Happy Belated Birthday, Jeanne Ohnemus

Scholarship Donor and valued member of the Eastern New England 99s Jeanne Ohnemus turned 95 on February 1! Congratulations, Jeannie!

A member of The Ninety-Nines since 1974, Jeanne Ohnemus had earned her PPL, CPL and IFR as well as her Multi-Engine rating. She flew the Piper Comanche 250 as well as the 260B, having many trips to the Bahamas and one special trip to Alaska and another to St. Martin's. In 2019, the FAA presented her with the Wright Bros. Master Pilot Award for 50 years of safe flying.

Jeanne has had many aviation-related adventures, such as solo skydiving at age 86 - see the Eagle East Aviation post above. She is an inspiration to all of us!

AEMSF Student Pilot FIRST WINGS Scholarship Applications Due Soon

The deadline for the AEMSF Student Pilot FIRST WINGS (formerly the Fly Now) Scholarship apps is just weeks away. Please be sure that you are familiar with the best practices for crafting a strong application. Review the webinar from Nov 4th 2020 on this subject at <https://www.ninety-nines.org/webinars.htm>

There is also a special section in this webinar for Chairwomen on Chapter Letters of Recommendation and how to write an effective one. (Note that LORs that simply restating what is in the essay does NOT help your applicant!) Chairs should expand on their applicant's story with their own supporting anecdotes.

Additionally, the tips and suggestions here - <http://www.flightscholarship.info/application-tips.html> should be followed to write a strong, engaging and descriptive essay, which differs from a letter format. An absolute must is to include a funding plan for achievement of the private pilot milestones so that the student may earn her reimbursements. Essays lacking this critical information do not score as well as those that do.
