

SPACEWOMAN

Documentary about Eileen Collins First Woman to Command a Space Shuttle Free Tickets Available for 4/22 Screening

SPACEWOMAN, a documentary about Commander Eileen Collins—the first woman to pilot and command a U.S. Space Shuttle—will be screening at the Regent Theatre, Arlington, MA on Wednesday, April 22.

Liz from 757 Media Group reached out and would like to offer free tickets to 99s members.

Please find an RSVP Google Form that you're welcome to circulate to 99s members:

<https://forms.gle/uSTLQbUMvWU4PLDj7>

As RSVPs come in, Liz will purchase the tickets and send each attendee their ticket receipt, which they can use to pick up their ticket at the theater—she will also follow up with them directly to ensure a smooth process.

HERE ARE THE DETAILS

757 Media Group has had the pleasure of welcoming several 99s chapters to recent screenings, and the response has been incredibly enthusiastic. As a lifetime member of The Ninety-Nines, Eileen shares a special bond with this community. It's been particularly meaningful to see women pilots, engineers, and students connect with her story and leadership journey.

What makes this event truly unique is that Eileen Collins will attend for a live Q&A following the film.

Screening Details:

Regent Theatre
7 Medford St, Arlington, MA
Wednesday, April 22, at 7:30 PM

Featuring: Film screening followed by an in-person Q&A with Eileen Collins